Dear Harold:

I am enclosing an article on the apparant and alleged suicide of De Mohrenschildt. As you will recall, it has been my belief from the inception that De Mohrenschildt was the one key person in the entire Kennedy matter, and I think it is most tragic that he is not available.

I hope you are able to come to Dallas. I have not been able to get the information you want as yet. As soon as I can squeeze a little time out, I will try to locate Buddy Walter's widow, and the other person you inquired about.

Sincerely,

Paul M. Rothermel, Jr.
